Dear Sir,

Sub : GST registration regarding

In view of the ensuing changeover to the new GST regime with effect from 1.7.2017, it would be necessary to obtain GST registration from the e-auction bidders at an early date. While ECL has already communicated/notified separately to the prospective e-auction bidders to provide the GST registration at the earliest, it would be appropriate if you also notify the same to the bidders to provide their GST registration along with other particulars as per the format enclosed (Information to be provided for Sl.1 to 11) immediately at ECL, Sales Office, Kolkata, for updating customer database, if not already provided. We are also enclosing particulars about provisional registration of Eastern Coalfields Limited (ECL) under GST for your information as well as of the bidders.
